Deanna's mission statement for her life is "to make a difference to someone everyday." She has a passion for random acts of kindness. She also loves to help others become the person God created them to be and to help people accomplish their goals and make their dreams come true.

She loves sharing Christ through scripture, life experiences and humorous stories. Deanna has been a Christian since she was 10 years old. She has been speaking to women's groups for 17 years. Her treasure box of topics include:

- Power Of A Positive Woman
- Celebrate Life With Jesus
- Come to the Well
- Follow The Yellow Brick Road To Your Field of Dreams
- Living Life with Passion
- Junk Out.... Joy In
- You've Got To Be Kidding, Lord
- I Am Woman. I Am Invincible. I Am Tired.

She recently published a book of daily devotions entitled Extra Hot Fudge Please. She is President of Bucket Buddies Mission, Inc., a non-profit which she created in honor of her sister who passed away in 2014 after 9 years of struggling with ovarian cancer. Bucket Buddies Mission provides buckets of goodies to children suffering from cancer and other life-threatening illnesses.

Deanna lives in southeast Indiana where she and her husband of 30 years live on the Young family farm. They have two grown daughters. Deanna is a corporate trademark paralegal with a degree in Journalism and Speech Communications from Ball State University and a Paralegal Certification from Saint Mary of the Woods. She loves football (Indianapolis Colts and Peyton Manning), riding her bicycle, playing the piano, reading, writing and watching Christmas movies!
